A TEEN ACTIVITY: BUBBLES DAY AT THE LIBRARY
Event Set for Monday, August 9, 2010 at 3:00 p.m.

Who says bubbles are just for kids? What kind of bubbles can you make – little bitty floating ones, long skinny slithery ones, square, triangular, or stick your hand inside ones? The Marshall Public Library is hosting Bubbles Day Monday, August 9, 2010 at 3:00 p.m. to find out.

The goal is to create a giant body bubble. Come to the Library on Monday, and see if you can become the “body in a bubble!” The Library will provide the bubble solution and some wands, or participants can bring their own to experiment with.

For more information, contact Kath Ann Hendricks at 232-1263 extension 28.

Oh, and don't forget the Library's last teen movie tomorrow, August 6. They will be showing Pirate's of the Caribbean: Curse of the Black Pearl (PG 13) from 3:30 p.m. to almost 6:00 p.m.
