POCATELLO POLICE DEPARTMENT SEEKS VOLUNTEERS
5 Positions Open on Citizens' Advisory Board

Pocatello Police Chief JR Miller is seeking volunteers to serve on the department's Citizens' Advisory Board. There are five (5) positions currently open for appointment.

The purpose of the board is to provide input to the office of the Chief of Police. The board helps identify community needs and concerns, discusses community-oriented policing issues, provides a conduit to the Chief for community response to proposed police programs and priorities determined by the Chief and educates the community about the functions and role of the police. Meetings are held during the daytime on a quarterly basis.

Applicants should represent a specific community group/organization, neighborhood, age-range, etc. Interested individuals need to complete an application form and submit a written letter identifying their interest and the community group they represent.

For more information or to obtain an application, contact Chief Miller's office at 234-6113 or chief@pocatello.us. Applications are due March 31, 2010.
