SIGNING CEREMONY AND PHOTO OPPORTUNITY
Event Held Tuesday, August 17, 2010 at Zoo Administration Building

The City of Pocatello is hosting a signing ceremony for a Memorandum of Understanding tomorrow, August 17, 2010 at 11:00 a.m. at the Pocatello Zoo, 3101 Avenue of the Chiefs in upper Ross Park. The Memorandum of Understanding is between the City of Pocatello for the Pocatello Zoo, Idaho State University, and Idaho Department of Fish and Game.

The Memorandum of Understanding will highlight the collaboration between the three entities concerning wildlife education and conservation, as well as focusing on construction of the new grizzly bear exhibit. Those attending will include Dr. Arthur Vailas, ISU President; Mark Gamblin, Regional Supervisor of Idaho Department of Fish and Game; Scott Ransom, Pocatello Zoo Director; Mayor Brian Blad, City of Pocatello; Mayor Steven England, City of Chubbuck; and Bannock County Commissioners, Larry Ghan, Steve Hadley, and Karl Anderson.

Refreshments will be served, and a tour will be conducted of the grizzly bear exhibit construction site.
