SUMMER IS NOT OVER AT THE POCATELLO ZOO
Still Time to Get Your Children into Zoorific Programs!

Are your kids driving you crazy this summer? Is school not starting soon enough? Why not sign your children up for some late summer fun that also happens to be educational!

Since District 25 classes will be starting later, the Pocatello Zoo added the Day Class, "Get the Scoop on Scat" on Thursday, August 19, 2010 from 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon. The children will learn about scat, what it can tell about an animal, and how you can use scat to track animals. After learning fast, funny facts about scat, children will have a fun scavenger hunt starring – of course – scat! Not everything concerning this topic stinks, however, and children will enjoy some sweet surprises along the way! Cost per child is $13 plus Zoo admission. Please meet at the Zoo Education Center at 8:30 a.m. to sign up, or call ahead to make reservations.

There are also several slots still available for the Late Summer Slumber ZooSnooZ^{zzz}, scheduled for Friday, August 20, from 6:30 p.m. until Saturday, August 21 at 10:00 a.m. In this child-only program, children will learn what kinds of activities our native animals do at night. They will enjoy a yummy barbeque, play a game of night-time hide and seek, study the stars, gorge on s' mores, snooze the night away in the Tipi or TreeHouse, and have a morning chat with a fun, frisky fox and a frolicking young elk. Cost per child is: $50 Non-resident card holder; $46 Resident Card Holder; or $42.50 Pocatello Zoo Society Member. Fees cover food costs too! Please call the Pocatello Zoo to make reservations for your child today!

And with this extended summer, don't forget that the Pocatello Zoo is open daily through Labor Day from 10:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. The Zoo will also be open late (7:30 p.m.) on Friday, August 27. The Zoo will remain open on weekends only from 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. Post Labor Day through Sunday, October 31.

For more information or to make reservations, please call 234-6264.
