DIANNE BRUSH NAMED COMMUNITY SERVICES ASSISTANT

The Pocatello Police Department (PPD) is pleased to announce that Dianne Brush has been named as the Community Services Assistant. Mrs. Brush officially begins her duties Tuesday, September 6, 2011.

Mrs. Brush began her employment with the City of Pocatello in 1990 as a patrol officer, specializing in community oriented policing. For the last thirteen years she has worked as the Licensing Enforcement Officer for the City. Prior to police work, Mrs. Brush worked in the broadcasting industry throughout the west. It is this combination of police work and media experience that Mrs. Brush will use to address the needs of the community

Citizens of Pocatello will be well informed about issues pertaining to crime prevention, community involvement and community oriented policing as the Police Department begins to develop its social media capabilities. Mrs. Brush will expand partnerships through Neighborhood Watch, McGruff House, neighborhood associations and other programs to increase membership in the Volunteer Citizen Corps of the Pocatello Police Department. She will encourage the community to become involved in the Community Oriented Policing mission of the PPD.

If anyone in the community is interested in volunteering for the Police Department or is looking for a crime prevention educational presentation, contact Dianne Brush at 234-6117.
