Researching the History of Buildings

Jamie Hale is a journalist and writer with Pocatello Magazine. In every issue, he explores the history of one of Pocatello's oldest and most interesting buildings. Saturday, January 14, 2012, Jamie will be using his experience and teaching you how to research the history of any building in town.

This free, 45 minute program will be held in the Idaho Archives section of Pocatello's Marshall Public Library, 113 South Garfield Avenue. The program begins at 1:00pm on January 14. No registration required.

For more information, contact Gaila Butikofer at 232-1263 extension 21.
