

Zoo-4-Tots

You are never too young - or too old to learn at the Zoo. This program is designed for Preschoolers, ages 3-5, and their caregivers (parents, grandparents and sitters), and gives these young minds a chance to explore the Zoo through their senses!

A Winter Paws with Mrs. Claus:

Saturday, December 3, 11:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m.
Location: Zoo Admin/Education Center, at 3101 Avenue of the Chiefs (Across from the Animal Shelter)

FAMILIES WELCOME!

Small children will work with caregivers and Mrs. Claus on songs, stories and "winter" crafts. Older children will assist their younger siblings with the crafts and also enjoy a puppet show and visit with an animal ambassador or two! If weather permits, participants may take a short tour to find animals that live near the North Pole!

Cost: First Parent or Grandparent and toddler:

Grandparent with toddler: ..... $11.25*

Parent with toddler: .....$12.50*

Each additional Family Member ..... $2.00

*Pocatello Zoological Society Members can attend with caregiver and toddler for $7.00!

For a little extra cost, families can enjoy hot North-Pole Coco and a Peppermint Pancake at Breakfast with Mrs. Claus, prior to the Zoo-4-Tots program. Breakfast will be served 9:00 -10:30 a.m. the morning of the program.

Adults (Ages 12 and older) ..... $5.00

Children (Ages 2-11) ..... $4.00
